

Introducing the 2012

Tertiary Study Scholarship

Tertiary fees are EXPENSIVE and student loans are hard work. But don't go busting that piggy bank open just yet - the good guys at Young Country and FertCo have banded together to set up a $2000 scholarship for students of Agriculture and Horticulture.

WHO CAN APPLY:

Any New Zealand resident, who is planning to, or is already involved in studies of Agriculture or Horticulture in 2012, at a recognised tertiary education provider

HOW DO I APPLY?

1. Fill in the application form below
2. Write a personal profile including: An essay introducing yourself, your education details, personal interests and why you wish to study agriculture
3. Submit a copy of your Academic record, including a copy of your NCEA Record of Learning and University results (if applicable)
4. Provide two personal references (preferably work related, eg. Your holiday job boss)

WHEN DO APPLICATIONS CLOSE?

Applications must be received by February 29, 2011

WHERE DO I SEND MY APPLICATION?

Send your complete application either by email to andrew.stewart@nzx.com, or by post to Young Country/Fertco Tertiary Study Scholarship C/- NZX Agri PO Box 529 Feilding 4740

Application Form (Submit this with your written application essay, references and academic record by 29/2/2012 to the address above)

Name:

Address:

Phone:

University/Polytechnic:

Proposed degree/course:

Date of birth: E-mail address: