

Press Release

Taratahi Agricultural Training Centre commences the search for a new Chief Executive Officer.

Masterton, 7th November 2007

Nicola Morris Chief executive of Taratahi from 1992 has tendered her resignation effective February 2008.

Jim Law, Chairman of the Trustees at Taratahi says "During Nicola's 15 years at Taratahi she has led the organisation from a small locally known rural training establishment to one that now holds a significant national presence within the agricultural education sector. The organisation has gone from strength to strength under Nicola's guidance with EFTS (equivalent full time student) rising from 33 in 1992 to 615 projected for 2007. In addition Taratahi's physical farming resources have grown from 4000 stock units to in excess of 30,000 sheep, beef and deer stock units as well as a dairy unit producing in New Zealand's top decile."

Applicants should contact Mike Hurdle at Micah Partners on 04 499 4749 for more information.

---